

The Council's Appreciation Award

THE COUNCIL'S Appreciation Award is given in recognition of an active member's efforts on behalf of THE COUNCIL and its initiatives. Individuals can be nominated by a colleague or someone in the field of education. The award is presented each year during the Winter Institute. The award can be given to:

Active member who volunteers time on behalf of THE COUNCIL (e.g., offers workshops, participates actively on a committee, etc.)

Has been active with a number of activities over a number of years.

Is recognized in the field of education as an educational leader (e.g., by colleagues, in his/her community, by THE COUNCIL).

Is nominated by a colleague or THE COUNCIL.

Awarded at Winter Institute & Lobby Day
