

Upcoming Webinar: Modern Collaboration for Remote Workers

Register Today

With the COVID-19 outbreak spreading around the world, many organizations are ordering their employees to start working from home. Is your organization considering this direction? Could your business operate as normal if your workforce couldn't return to the workplace in months? Are you prepared with the right tools - and the best practice - to enable your team to collaborate from the home office? What does productivity look like for a remote worker?

Date:
March 26, 2020

Time:
1:00PM ET

Register Now

Join us for an upcoming webinar, "Modern Collaboration for Remote Workers," to learn how you can leverage cloud-based technology and our virtual customs to succeed amidst this crisis.

Topics include:

- Access Points and Network Reliability
- Data Accessibility
- Information Security
- Adopting an Effective Remote Culture

Who should attend this webinar?

- IT/Security Directors
- HR Directors
- Operation Managers
- Front Line Managers
- Line of Business Leads

Simon Rilkoff
CM+OE Practice Lead, Core BTS

Jason Price
Practice Lead OECM, Core BTS

Simon Rilkoff is a highly engaged leader specializing in change management, adoption, and organizational effectiveness. Simon has experience in Office 365, Business Analysis, Dynamics 365, Power BI and much more.

Jason Price has facilitated training, customer success management, and organizational development programs for over 20 years. He works from home in Santa Clarita, California.

{Unsubscribe}

Core BTS
Copyright 2020